Sharks Year By Year History

2005-06

On November 5, 2005, the Rochester RazorSharks brought professional basketball back to the city. On March 21, 1983, the Rochester Zeniths, who spent 5 years in the Continental Basketball Association, played their last game. The 'Sharks joined the revised ABA, the American Basketball Association with Rod Baker as coach and won their first game, 89-88 over the Buffalo Rapids at the Blue Cross Arena. Rochester roared to first place during a 26-4 regular season, including 16 straight victories between late December and late February. After a November 25th loss to Niagara at the BCA, the team never lost again at home, a span that reached 17 games through the playoffs. The 'Sharks bullied their way to a 53 point victory against Baltimore at the Blue Cross Arena. They also limited Buffalo to just 65 points in a December game at Rochester, a 'Sharks defensive effort that hasn't been topped. During a 119-116 double overtime defeat at Harlem, Chris Carrawell scored 38 points, which remains the club high today. League rules awarded 'Shark-to-be John Halas four points for a half court shot at the BCA, while playing for Harlem. Demond Stewart scored the most regular season points (441) while James Reaves led the team in scoring average (18.2) and rebounds (7.2). Eric Walton shot 55% from the field. Lazarus Sims was the 'Sharks leader for assists (6.1) and steals (39). Rochester was chosen to host all games in the post season, in a series called The Great Eight Tournament, featuring eight teams in the league. The RazorSharks bested Newark, Atlanta and San Jose to reach the finals. The San Jose game saw Carrawell clear 18 rebounds, still a team record. Rochester took the championship with a 117-114 victory over Southern California. A season high crowd of 6,377 fans celebrated as Demond Stewart led the team with 27 points and Carrawell was named playoff MVP. Stewart led 'Sharks playoff scorers with 18.3 per game. Carrawell was named the ABA Most Valuable Player. Owner and General Manager Orest Hrywnak was named Executive of the Year and Rod Baker won Coach of the Year honors. Carrawell was named to the all-star squad.

2006-07

The 'Sharks returned to the ABA, starting off with a 30 point victory on the road over Baltimore in the season's opener. Eleven days later, Rochester won their first game at home, 107-93 over Buffalo. It was the start of an undefeated home run at the BCA, 18 straight through the year, extending the team's consecutive home winning streak to 35. Their 24th win in a row set the professional basketball mark in Rochester. On the road, the club was just 6-6, including a four game losing streak away, and unable to win at Detroit in all three contests. Rochester could only score 75 at Quebec City, still a club low. Eric Coley swiped 8 balls during a home win against Cape Cod, which remains the 'Sharks steals record. During the 42-point crushing of Hollywood, Lazarus Sims set the 'Shark mark for assists with 21. Sims also established the franchise's only triple double so far (12 points, 11 rebounds, 14 assists) in a tip off versus Detroit. The 'Sharks (24-6) finished behind Vermont for first place, playing six games fewer than the Frost Heaves (30-6). Before the playoffs could begin the 'Sharks bolted from the ABA after a scheduling conflict plus other reasons. Keith Friel led the team in points at 16.6 per. James Reaves collected the most rebounds, 204 (7.0) and Lazarus Sims passed off for the most assists (8.4).

Rochester helped form the new Premier Basketball League, finishing with a league-best 18-2 tally, and racing to another undefeated season at the Blue Cross Arena. Their two losses on the road included a 15 point failure at Reading- still the 'Sharks worst defeat. Ron Rollerson established the franchise's blocked shots record, swatting away 7 attempts versus Jacksonville. And Vidal Massiah scored 12 field goals (club record, tied twice since by Keith Friel). Keith Friel was the regular season 'Sharks leader for points at 16.5 per game. James Reaves was the best rebounder with 8.2 a contest. The assists leader, with 3.8, was Steve Hailey. The 'Sharks reached the championship game in the playoffs, then disposed of Arkansas, 142-112 for the crown at Rochester. A club record 9,717 jammed the Blue Cross Arena. The game was delayed after Sammy Monroe's attempted follow up dunk shattered the backboard. In a ceremony at the Blue Cross Arena, the 'Sharks retired their first uniform, honoring Lazarus Sims and his number "three". Named to the PBL Playoff team were James Reaves and Keith Friel. Friel was named PBL Playoff MVP, averaging 22.1 points. Ron Rollerson shot 69% from the field (14-22). Sammy Monroe was 14-22 from outside (64%) Rod Baker was named Coach of the Year. Making the PBL All-League Team were Reaves (1st), Friel (2nd) and Monroe (3rd).

The 'Sharks began defense of their PBL title by dropping two games on the road, and three of their first four contests. Rochester's home winning streak was stopped at 48, after Vermont eeked out a 3 point win at the BCA, January 19th. But the club responded with a 16-game winning streak, tying the team record and finishing in first place for the regular season at 17-3. In a March home game, the 'Sharks erupted for 101 points in the first half alone, against Chicago (James Reaves' jumper put them over the top). The final score of 176-96 is Rochester's largest victory ever (80 points) and the most team points ever scored by a city pro franchise. Also in that game, Keith Friel set club records for points in regulation (36) and three pointers (9) and tied the team mark with 12 field goals (Vidal Massiah). For the regular season, Keith Friel led the team with 20.8 points a game. James Reaves was tops in rebounds (8.9). Steve Hailey (3.8) and Jerice Crouch (3.1) led Rochester for assists. Marlin Johnson shot 76% from the field (45-59). Friel had 83 three pointers (44%). In the post season, Rochester lost their first playoff game ever after Manchester shocked the 'Sharks at the BCA. But the team then knocked out the Millrats and romped to another title, this time 152-115 over Battle Creek, at home. Incredibly, the championship game was interrupted again by a broken backboard- and again involved Sammy Monroe, who stopped the clock after an uncontested glass-breaking dunk. Rochester grabbed a team record 72 rebounds in the finale. Xavier Morton connected on 63% of his shots from the field (15-24). Rod Baker was named co-Coach of the Year (Terry Sare, Battle Creek). Friel was named the league's Most Valuable Player. Friel and Monroe were named co-PBL Playoff Most Valuable Players. Added to the PBL All-League Team were: Friel (1st) and James Reaves (2nd). Making the PBL All Playoff Team: Friel, Reaves and Monroe. Derik Hollyfield was named to the PBL All-Defensive Team.

During the 'Sharks ABA seasons (2005-2006 and 2006-2007) league rules awarded bonus points for a team scoring when the "3-D light" was illuminated. (both basketball backboards were lined with red lights that would be turned on at the scorer's table) The rule:

The 3-D Rule light is On when...

- The offensive team loses possession of the ball while the ball has backcourt status
- The ball goes out-of-bounds after touching the frontcourt (or a player or official in the Frontcourt)
- If the offensive team does not establish ball control in the frontcourt, the 3D Light will remain in effect
- When the 3-D Rule is on, an additional point is added to the point value of the field goal.
- 3-D Rule remains on until the team scores, attempts a free throw for a personal foul; or the other team gains control of the ball.
- When the defense commits a foul with in 3D, the number of free throw will be increased by one.
- When the defensive team receives a technical foul in 3D, this 3D light remain on following the technical foul.

The 2006-07 ABA season rules allowed coaches to insert a non-roster "celebrity" player into the lineup, once per contest. Popular Rochester bar owner, MOE ALAIMO, and East High School graduate, played four minutes and 29 seconds during the 'Sharks 131-102 victory over Maryland, February 22, 2007 at the Blue Cross Arena. The sixty-year old scored two points. Moe was the only "celebrity" player ever to play for the 'Sharks.

SAMMY MONROE was involved in both backboard-shattering incidents at the Blue Cross Arena. In the first quarter of the 2007-08 PBL Championship game (won by Rochester 142-112) Monroe went to the hoop with James Reaves, breaking the backboard. Reaves needed medical attention and both players returned. Reaves changed out of his usual #35 uniform, switching to #45. During the 2008-09 PBL title game, (again in the first quarter) Monroe broke glass again, this time during a breakaway dunk. After a 45 minute delay to bring in a new backboard, Monroe returned, finishing with 25 points as the 'Sharks beat Battle Creek, 152-115.

On the road, the Rochester RazorSharks have gone winless against three teams: Quebec (1 game), Harlem (2 games) and Detroit (3 games). Only one team has gone undefeated against the 'Sharks at the Blue Cross Arena. 12 days before the team folded, the Niagara Daredevils beat Rochester, 116-111 at the BCA, in the only meeting ever between the two clubs, Nov. 24, 2005.

The Rochester RazorSharks have retired one uniform number in its history. On January 24, 2008, the club honored Syracuse guard LAZARUS SIMS- and Number 3, the 'Sharks all time assist leader for a career (435) and in a game (21). Sims also has collected the team's only triple-double (12 points-11 rebounds-14 assists) during a 115-100 win over Detroit December 7, 2006.

DEMOND STEWART is the only Rochester player to finish his 'Sharks career without missing a game. Stewart played all 85 games over three seasons. Current 'Shark JERICE CROUCH enters the 2009-10 season (his third year) never missing a game. On the floor, only 'Sharks Coach ROD BAKER has participated in every one of the 108 Rochester games officially played. (The 'Sharks four year 110 game record of 94-16 includes two victories awarded by forfeit. Current Assistant Coach and Vice President of Basketball Operations CHRIS IVERSEN, who served in other club capacities throughout the 'Sharks first two seasons, also has never missed any of the RazorSharks official games.

A WORD ABOUT THE STATS... In a perfect stats world, everything would add up and analysis could go forward. Rochester-home stat keeping has been complete and available all along- as has both home and away information involving the Premier Basketball League. But the two seasons connected to the American Basketball Association has included scattered outages and question marks involving away contests. Incomplete boxscores then, has affected game, season and career numbers involving: Barnett, Blanks, Brown, Carrawell, Coley, Cook, Edwards, Friel, Halas, Jefferson, Little, Mackell, Martzloff, Moncrief, Nichols, Price, Reaves, Sims, Stewart, Walton and Watson. This also evolves into incomplete team totals for the 2005-06 and 2006-07 statistics involving those two American Basketball Association campaigns.
